

NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK
COMMUNITY BEGINS HERE
may 17-23, 2015
sponsored by the american public works association

In partnership with Agoura High School, The City of Agoura Hills Public Works Department is proud to present a week-long series of guest speakers focusing on the Civil Engineering career field!

SEE REVERSE FOR DETAILS AND SPEAKER INFO!

NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK
COMMUNITY BEGINS HERE
may 17-23, 2015

sponsored by the american public works association

Don't miss your chance to hear about the multiple disciplines that make up the Civil Engineering career path!

SPEAKERS:

Monday, May 18th – Lunch Period - Room A-1

Structural Engineering
Amir Hamidzadeh, P.E.

- Amir has 25 years of experience in Architecture, Engineering, and local government and is currently the Building Official for the City of Agoura Hills

Tuesday, May 19th – Lunch Period - Room A-1

Traffic Engineering
Sri Chakravarthy, P.E., T.E.

- Sri has more than 11 years of experience in traffic design, planning, and street, intersection, and highway operations. Sri is also the City's Traffic Engineer.

Wednesday, May 20th – Lunch Period - Room A-1

Geotechnical/Soils Engineering
Lauren Doyel, P.E., G.E.

- Lauren has 30 years of work experience in the industry performing underground investigations, dam, road, structure constructions, and multiple developments.

Friday, May 22nd – Lunch Period - Room A-1

Construction
Willdan Engineering

- Since 1964, Willdan has provided superior civil engineering and design services to municipalities, counties, special districts, and state and federal agencies.