

National Weather Service - Los Angeles/Oxnard

Updated: 300pm Monday, September 7, 2020

Point of Contact: NWS Operations (24/7/365) (805) 988-6619 unlisted

KEY POINTS

- Excessive Heat Warnings in effect through 8 pm this evening
- Red Flag Warnings for LA and Ventura Mountains, Santa Barbara County mountains and South Coast through 10 pm due to heat, low humidity and north winds
- Red Flag Warning in effect for moderate to locally strong Santa Ana Winds
 - Noon Tuesday through Wednesday evening for Ventura and LA County mountains and valleys
 - Late Tuesday night through Wednesday evening for Ventura and LA Coasts
 - Warning may need to be extended into Thursday
- Continued dry with breezy NE winds through Thursday

CHANGES FROM PREVIOUS BRIEFING

WEATHER AND IMPACTS OUTLOOK - highest impact color shown

Mon 9/7	Tue 9/8	Wed 9/9	Thu 9/10	Fri 9/11	Sat 9/12	Sun 9/13
Excessive Heat Fire Wx	Wind and Fire Wx	Wind and Fire Wx	Fire Wx

Legend	None	Low	Medium	High	Extreme
--------	------	-----	--------	------	---------

Weather & Hazards Data Viewer

HAZARD DETAILS

Southwest California - HIGH CONFIDENCE
Heat	Impacts include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Exceptionally increased danger of heat stress or heat stroke through this evening <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Especially sensitive populations like the young, old, those without air conditioning, and those participating in daytime outdoor activities. ● Increased threat of power outages and rolling blackouts
Details	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What: 100 to 110 degrees away from the beaches. - Where: All counties except for LA and Ventura Coasts and Valleys. - When: Excessive Heat Warnings in effect through 8 pm this evening.

Southwest California - HIGH CONFIDENCE
Fire Weather	Impacts include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Extreme fire behavior with potential for large vertical plume growth, rapid fire spread and increased threat of large fires ● N winds tonight, S SBA County and I-5 Corridor ● Santa Ana winds Tuesday afternoon through Wednesday evening, possibly through Thursday ● Smoke from nearby fires to continue through at least Tuesday.

Details

- What: Hot and dry conditions with gusty north winds 25-45 mph through this evening.
- Warm and very dry conditions with gusty Santa Ana NE winds Tuesday through Wednesday with gusts 45-55 mph. Isolated gusts to 60 mph in the mountains, including the Santa Monicas. Minimum humidities 5-10%.
- When: Red Flag Warnings in effect through this evening for southern Santa Barbara County and the I-5 Corridor.
- Red Flag Warning Tuesday afternoon through Wednesday evening LA and Ventura Counties. Winds strongest initially over the mountains and valleys, spreading to the coastal areas late Tuesday night. Warning may need to be extended into Thursday.

FORECAST GRAPHICS

Hot, Dry, & Windy!! Elevated to Critical Fire Danger through Wednesday

Red Flag Warning: through 8 pm tonight for N Winds
SBA Co. Mtns & South Coast and Ventura/LA Mtns

Red Flag Warning Tuesday-Wednesday for Santa Ana Winds
Ventura and Los Angeles Counties

Photo Credit: SoCal News Group

Photo Credit: Chris Bosworth

Weather Forecast Office
Los Angeles/Oxnard, CA

Updated Sept 7, 2020 at 12 pm PDT

Follow Us:

weather.gov/LosAngeles

Gusty Santa Ana Winds Tuesday through Wednesday

Ventura/LA Counties

- Coast & Valleys: NE gusts 25-45 mph
- Mountains: NE gusts 45-55 mph, isolated gusts 60 mph

Impacts

- Critical Fire Danger due to low humidity and winds
- Potential for downed tree limbs and power outages

Photo by Jeff Hall

NWS Los Angeles/Oxnard CA Issued Sept. 7, 2020 230 pm Follow us:

For the latest forecast updates, visit www.weather.gov/lox

If you have questions or would like to submit weather reports, photos, or to unsubscribe from these briefings, email eric.boldt@noaa.gov