

MEET THE AUTHOR

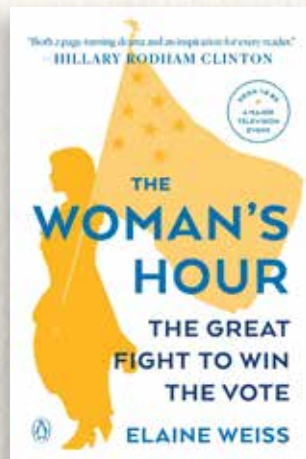

A VIRTUAL EVENT

ELAINE WEISS discusses her latest book, The Woman's Hour, The Great Fight to Win the Vote.

Thursday, November 19, 2020 4:00 p.m. (PST)

ZOOM link: email AgouraHillsRec@AgouraHillsCity.org

"Unfolding over six weeks in the summer of 1920, The Woman's Hour is both a page-turning drama and an inspiration for everyone, young and old, male and female, in these perilous times. So much could have gone wrong, but these American women would not take no for an answer: their triumph is our legacy to guard and emulate."

— Hillary Rodham Clinton

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Elaine Weiss is a Baltimore-based journalist and author, whose feature writing has been recognized with prizes from the Society of Professional Journalists, and her byline has appeared in many national publications, as well as in reports for National Public Radio.

Weiss' most recent book, The Woman's Hour: The Great Fight to Win the Vote has won critical acclaim from the New York Times, Wall St. Journal, Christian Science Monitor, and The New Yorker, hailed as a "riveting, nail-biting political thriller" with powerful parallels to today's political environment.

The City is featuring author Elaine Weiss this year to Celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the 19th Amendment – Women's Right to Vote

