DISCUSSION / TRAINING

1. Planning Commission Orientation Workshop

City Attorney Lee provided an orientation presentation to the Planning Commission.

No formal action was required or taken on this item.

The Planning Commission considered placing an item on a future agenda.

MOTION: Commissioner Sylvester moved to agendize a discussion to address the duration of meetings, including a process for when there are a large number of speakers on an item.

City Attorney Lee suggested a friendly amendment to not just address meeting duration and speakers, but a broader topic as to how the Planning Commission is going to run their meetings.

Chair Mogri clarified the motion was to agendize a discussion on meeting conduct and procedures.

ACTION: Following discussion, Commissioner Sylvester moved to agendize a discussion on meeting conduct and procedures. Commissioner Horenstein seconded. The motion carried 5-0, by the following roll call vote:

AYES: Chair Mogri, Vice Chair Wolf, and Commissioners Asuncion, Horenstein, and Sylvester.

NOES: None.

ABSENT: None.

Chair Mogri noted this item would be agendized for a future meeting.
